

"I have worked with Roxane on more than one transaction. She listed and sold a former boarding home for Avesta and, in doing so, demonstrated a great deal of persistence in both finding a buyer and managing the transaction to a successful closing. She did both well. Subsequently, she approached me with a great acquisition opportunity for Avesta – a development lot in downtown Portland that is ideal for a significant housing development. Roxane queried me and advised me on how to structure the offer to maximize the potential of reaching agreement with the seller. Once under contract, she anticipated issues that emerged and her input was effective in our team steering clear of obstacles on the way to a successful closing. To sum it up, Roxane makes transactions happen."
